

As a high school teacher, I can't imagine a world controlled by one mass media power. When I teach Animal Farm, I certainly never expected a similar threat to face my own precious country. Diversity in the media is one of our checks that a balance of coverage on all sides of issues wil continue.